REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to show or fairly suggest a recording medium stored thereon a game program and a manipulation suppression program which is used to suppress a predetermined manipulation by a user while a game of the game program is executed wherein the manipulation suppression program is configured to control a programmable device to function as a video game machine as set forth in independent claims 15 and 16. In particular, none of the art whether taken alone or in combination can be said to teach or suggest the manipulation suppression program configured to control a programmable device to function as the predetermined manipulation adversely affects a life span of the programmable device; the detecting means detects a player manipulation and determine that the predetermined manipulation exists when the player manipulation is detected a predetermined number of times within a predetermined period; and a parameter change device which favorably altering the game parameter representing the capacity of the character in response to the detecting means detecting the player manipulation less than the predetermined number of times within the predetermined period, along with the rest of the claimed limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
